West Valley City Mayor to Host Leadership Summit

WHAT: West Valley City Leadership Summit

WHEN: Thursday, May 12, 8:30 a.m. – 12 noon

WHERE: Utah Cultural Celebration Center, 1355 West 3100 South

WHO: Religious, ethnic, and educational leaders have been invited.

WHY: During his first year in office, Mayor Mike Winder hosted three summits for religious, ethnic, and educational leaders. This year, Mayor Winder is building upon the success of previous summits by bringing all leaders together for the first ever West Valley City Leadership Summit.

“West Valley City is more than just departments at City Hall,” says Mayor Winder. “Schools, churches, legislators, ethnic groups and neighborhood organizations in our area are vital parts of our community. The Leadership Summit will allow us to bring these groups together to discuss how City hall can better address the challenges they face.”

Leaders from all religious, ethnic, and educational groups with ties to West Valley City are invited. While some groups may not be located within the City, many members of those groups may live in the City and will benefit from the information presented and shared.

To RSVP for the West Valley City Leadership Summit, please email apezely@wvc-ut.gov or call (801) 963-3220.
